

Identification and interpretation of missing section, Part IV: a summary, in progress

Missing section is a critical clue in the identification of normal faults, unconformities, and stratigraphic pinchouts. The three panels at right have suites of logs that can be correlated to reveal the three cases. Part V of this series provides solutions and commentary.

A

B

C

